AN ALLEGED DESERTION

Mrs. William McBride Applied to the Police Officers.

She Charges Her Husband With Blowing in All His Money for Liquor-The County Officials Will Look After Her Wants.

Great Falls, Nov. 1 .- A sad case of alleged desertion was brought to light here to-day when Mrs. William Mc-Bride applied to the local authorities arrest her husband, who was about the city drinking, while she or her children had not tasted food since vesterday. Later, with her year-old baby in her arms, she made application to County Auditor Hendry for aid. Temporary relief was given and to-morrow she will be sent to the poor farm to be cared for until something can be

Mrs. McBride arrived here this morning from Choteau county, accompanied by her two children, aged 1 and 3 years. Her husband is a barber by trade, but lately has had charge of a section on the Montana Central at Carroll about 17 miles from Marias. In both her appeals she was accompanied by the section foreman at Marias, who bore out her stary. For some time past Mcher story. For some time past Mc-Bride, the wife charges, has been drawing his money on pay day and then disappearing until it was all gone. At times they had nothing in the house to eat. Mrs. McBride remonstrated, which resulted in her husband quitting is job a few days ago and coming to Great Falls, leaving nothing at home for the family. Mrs. McBride was afraid to live in the section house alone and borrowing sufficient money, came on here, hoping that her husband would take care of her and her children. She met him on the street this morning and he was drinking heavily. In plain words he is alleged to have told her he would never have anything more to do with her and he did not care how she or the children got along. t was then an appeal was made to Chief Guerin, who promised to look after the drunken husband and referred the wife to the county.

The Marias section man claims that he has known for a long time that Mc-Bride did not support his wife, and before leaving the woman to-day, as a last resort, offered her a permanent home with his family at Marias. Mrs. McBride, who is not strong, is about 45 years of age and in a delicate con-

A little child of J. R. Hays, living sear Colquitt, Ga., overturned a pot of boiling water, scalding itself so severely that the skin came off its breast and limbs. The distressed parents sent to Mr. Bush, a merchant of Colquitt, for a remedy, and he promptly forwarded Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The child was suffering intensely, but was re-lieved by a single application of the Pain Balm. Another application or two made it sound and well. For sale by

A LARGE CROP.

Great Falls, Nov. 1.-W. R. Embleton, who has just returned to Fort Benton try, says the River Press, brings back news of great crop yields among the Mormon settlements around Cardston. He states that they practice late fall sowing, the greater portion of which is lone in mud that is ankle deep, and it invariably results in surprisingly good crops. The average wheat yield this season was fully 55 bushels per acre. Mr. Embleton also reports that the sec-tion visited is the greatest game preserve and the most picturesque region

TONSKEMPER RECOVERING.

Found Nearly Dead on the Prairie Near

Box Elder. Great Falls, Nov. 1 .- Caspar Tonskemper, the plasterer who, for four weeks past, has been at the county jail under the care of the county physician, was to-day released and has gone to work. A month ago parties passing along the road near Box Elder discovered a man, half-clad, lying on the prairie. He was very weak and in a serious condition. The sheriff here was notified and went out. On arriving they found Tonskemper. He was almost dead. The rain and sleet of the early evening had numbed his body and rendered him semi-conscious.

He was brought to the jad and nursed back to life. For several months prior to his mishap he had been drinking heavily. He gives as a cause that he was out of work and could get nothing to eat. Investigation showed that ing to eat. Investigation showed that what little money he could lay his bands on went for drink, and on this alone he lived until, while wandering over the prairie, he was taken with delirium tremens, and had his discovery been delayed another hour he would probably have died. Prior to the drunk which came so near to ending his life he was an industrious fellow, and promises to follow in that path here-

Great Falls, Nov. 1.—Word reaches here to-day that on Tuesday last the body of John Mesker, one of the earliest pioneers in the state, was found in a tent in Bynum, in Teton county. He had been dead probably 24 hours, and from every indication had died from excessive drinking. A coroner's jury was impaneled and returned the fellowing verdict: "The deceased same to his death in a tent at Bynum, pre-sumably from the excessive use of intoxicating liquors and dissipation gen-

Drink later got the best of him and soon his fortune was spent over the bar. For several years he has drank heavily. What little money be could obtain went for liquor, and food often did not pass his lips for days. The body was buried by the county

Great Falls, Nov. 1.-The improvenents now under way by the Neihart Water company at the new dam on O'Brien creek speak volumes for the enterprise of this company, and also for the town, in which men, in times like the present, repose such faith as to spend large sums of money on the fu-ture, says the Neihart Herald. NEW YORK STOCK REPORT

Digest of Exchange News-Mining Stocks. Metal Quotations-Wool Prices and Movements-Grain and Produce-Review of Trade.

New York, Nov. 1.-The business on the stock exchange to-day was very small and the trading amounted to little more than the passing of holdings from one hand to the other of the same person. The professionals bought stocks in the morning and sold them in the afternoon, with the result that nearly all changes resolved themselves into very small frac-tions, though the latter reaction extended a little further than the early rise. The sale of the Union Pacific main line at Omaha had the effect of stiffening the price of the stock, which rose at times 1% above the lowest, and saved a part of its advance at the close. The stock was, however, without buoyancy. To-day being a bank holiday in London no quotations were received from there to influence prices here, but there was light buying of some stocks in this market for London account. The stiffening of the rate in call money, which is likely to last for some length of time, is attributed to operations incident to the November disrsements on account of dividends and interest, which are estimated at about $30,000,000.

Railroad bonds were strong in tone.
Total sales $965,000. United States bonds

Chicago, Nov. 1.-Wheat had to encounter a great number of discourage-ments to begin with, and they were added to by one other extremely bearish feature that developed during the day, the breaking of th edrought throughout lilinois, Indiana. Ohio, Tennessee and Ken-tucky, very heavy receipts of wheat in the Northwest, lower quotations from Liverpool. The world's shipments for the week were heavier than expected and a further increase in the amount was on ocean passage. That was a formidable array of forces for the buils to stand up against, and consequently the opening of the day's proceedings was at a decline of te per bushel. December ranged from 96% to 97c at the opening, with a few sales immediately after at 96%. Offerings were not so heavy as expected, and for this reason a slow re-covery to 574c ensued, which was the highest point of the day. After that the prices sagged, the weakness becoming very decided when the figures on the vis tble supply were announced. They showed an increase of 2,345,000 bushels. This was a complete surprise and showed how little can be learned of the changes in stocks in the regular elevators of the country by taking the published daily receipts at the principal markets.
